Agenda Item: Continued development of the API

Discussion: We discussed actions we needed to do to get the API working in exactly the way we needed it to and how each member of the team can help with its implementation

Conclusions: Josh would redesign and reimplement how the database works in order to get the API to work in the way required and Callum would do the implementation. Tom and Alex would focus on the web development of pages that require the API in preparation for the its implementation

Action items:

- Finish new version of the API and database
- Create pages ready for the API

Deadline: 27/04/22
